Baptist Sunday School to Hold Picnic at Golden Spur—Activity at the Palmer Shipyard.

The Sunday school of the Baptist church will have its annual picnic at the Golden Spur Thursday of this week instead of Wednesday as at first planned. Transportation will be by trolley. The Methodist picnic will be held on Thursday at the grove in Poquonoc.

Shipyard a Busy Place.

Seven cars of lumber and two of iron are at the station here for the Palmer shipyard and big auto-trucks are transferring the shipment to the plant. Many men have been taken on recently and about 700 are on the payroll now. The marine railways are down, wharves removed and the room will be used for the keels of the 12 new boats to be built for the government, work on which will commence this week.

Miss Jessie Boose has resigned her position as bookkeeper with H. R. Douglas in New London and gone into the office at the Palmer shipyard.

Building Nearly Complete.

The buildings on the Palmer lot recently purchased by the Morse company are nearly completed and the negro occupants are moving in. Three have been built so far and several others are going up on the Cedar street lot. It is expected that a well will be sunk shortly in Elm street.

Food Sale Successful.

The Silver Links made a good sum at the food sale recently held at the home of Mrs. William Hill.

Personals.

Angus Morrison, whose foot was recently amputated, is doing well. Mrs. Douglas MacDonald has re-

BODY FOUND IN STONINGTON HARBOR

Identified as Mrs. John Kenyon of Main Street, Westerly—
Woman Had Been Missing From Home Since Last Thursday—Former Resident Killed on European Battle-field.

The body of a woman believed to be about 35 years of age, was found in Stonington harbor near the Stevens house Tuesday morning at 10:45 o'clock. It was about 40 feet from the shore and lay on the bottom of the bay. There was nothing about the body to identify her except a gold wedding ring marked on the inside "J. to M." or "I. to M." It was impossible to tell whether the first initial was a "J." or "I." On the same finger with the ring was a gold guard ring. Around the neck was a string of blue beads. The woman weighed 125 pounds, had reddish hair, and her body was clothed in an undervest, over which was a light white waist. The undershirt was of drab and white plaid and the overskirt of a dark material. A badly worn pocket in her skirt was empty. Her shoes were of the cloth top style and were badly worn. Dr. H. C. Little, medical examiner of the town of Stonington, ordered the body taken to the undertaker's rooms of Charles Davis on Water street in Stonington, where he made a thorough examination. The body was identified Tuesday night at Mrs. John Kenyon of Main street, Westerly, by her husband, Mrs. Kenyon had been missing from home since last Thursday.

So far as is known, Mrs. Charles Henry Mehan and two daughters, Rhoda and Fay, aged 3 and 2 years, respectively, are the first in Westerly to be forced to lay the costly sacrifice of a husband and father on the altar of America's war. Private Mehan of Milwaukie, New Brunswick, Canada, formerly of Westerly, was killed in action at Vimy Ridge, France, May 2, last. Last October Mehan, at the age of 23 years, was numbered among the recruits of the 15th Battalion of Canadian Infantry and departed for France. He was later transferred to the 24th Battalion. He entered active service and was injured in the battle of Vimy Ridge at 4 o'clock in the morning of May 2, death coming at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. His brother, Thomas, who enlisted with him, is still at the front. Mrs. Marion Mehan, on receiving the news of her husband's death about a week later, returned with her two little daughters to Westerly, where she is now living with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Marcy of Mechanic street.

Mrs. Jane Smith Anderson, wife of James W. Anderson of 8 Summer street, died suddenly Monday evening, after being ill only a few minutes. Mrs. Anderson was out calling on a neighbor when taken ill. She was taken to her home and soon after died from heart disease. She was 52 years of age, and leaves, besides her husband, three sons, Harry, Joseph and Clarence.

Superintendent of Schools Willard H. Bacon has expressed a desire that the mothers and school children should reap the benefits of the fruit and vegetable canning which is being done this summer under the supervision of the extension department of the Rhode Island State college. Esther W. Peterson, who is a graduate of the Westerly High school, is the representative of the state college here. She has organized the work so that there are canning clubs in all of the schools. More than 100 young people are enrolled and meeting with her each week, learning to take care of the fruits and vegetables which are to be harvested within the next few weeks.

Chief of Police Thomas E. Brown has issued a final warning to the automobile owners and drivers of this community to strictly obey the state laws and town ordinances regarding speeding and the passing of machines while they are taking on or discharging passengers.

Lawrence Deer was arraigned before the second district court at South Kingstown Tuesday on complaint of Sheriff John B. Wilcox, charged with breaking and entering the home of Charles G. Washburn at Narragansett Pier in July, at which time, it is alleged, he stole a quantity of silverware and nine bedspreads valued at $102.50.

Deer pleaded guilty and after a preliminary hearing was adjudged guilty by Judge Lewis and bound over to the September session of the superior court for Washington county, which meets on the third of November. Bail was fixed at $1,000, and in default he was committed to the Kingston jail.

A new writ was entered, that of Thomas L. Greene vs. the R. L. Rose company of Providence, for book account, $408. From the Providence court, C. Olney filed his appearance for the plaintiff. The case was continued one week.

general of the United States a list of 50 names of men suspected of having failed to register for the conscription army.

This list does not include the hundred or more men that Howick, and other officials of the federal government and the state, have rounded up and made to register.

The new uniforms furnished the members of the Westerly Coast Guard by the town have arrived, but they will not be distributed among the men until the leggings and hats arrive. The committee has been slow about purchasing the leggings and hats, so that the men will now have to wait for some time before they can don their khaki suits.

JEWETT CITY

Former Resident, Mrs. Rachel D. Tossitt, Died in Norwich—Notes of Interest.

The news of the death of Mrs. Rachel Dyer Tossitt in Norwich Tuesday was received in town Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Tossitt was born in Jewett City and was the daughter of Octavia and Joshua A. Dyer. She has lived in Jewett City most of her life. In families who were accustomed to employ her in times past she was especially liked for her unfeeling good humor and warm heartedness. There are many of the families in town who will be sorry to hear of her death, for she had been a good friend in many a time of need. She is survived by her daughter, Mrs. Dottie Wilbur, of Jewett City, and a son, Charles Tossitt, of New York. A brother, Joseph Dyer, lives in Worcester, where he holds a responsible position.

Rev. E. M. Anthony and A. H. Anthony are away on an auto trip.

Miss Jennie Humes is visiting in Worcester.

Mrs. L. G. Buckenham and son Donald have returned from a week's stay in New Haven. Mrs. Champion Mathewson and daughter Janet accompanied them on their return.

Women in Overalls.

Some of the women patriots have taken up the becoming custom of wearing overalls. They can't deny it, because their pictures have been taken.

Will Erect Clubhouse.

Plans are being drawn by Cudworth & Thompson, architects, of Norwich, for a clubhouse to be erected by the Ashland Cotton company for the use of employees. The clubhouse will be conveniently located opposite the main gate of the plant on the former site of the Ashland store, which will enable operatives to use the clubhouse during noon hours if so desired. While the plans are not completed in detail, it is understood they include lounging rooms, smoking rooms, card room, billiard table and bowling alley, locker
